1. Welcome to the jLaBase Developer's Site

This is the jLaBase Developer's Site, a community of developers planning (and improving in the future) the jLaBase Environment. In this section you will find articles written by and for developers. If you are reading this, it is supoused that you want to develop some features of the jLaBase Environment, if you don't, you're wrong. For a more updated version of this document take a look to the Wiki site (http://jlabase.sourceforge.net/wiki) .
